

EDWARD A. BUTLER BIOGRAPHY

The youngest student ever admitted to Philadelphia's prestigious Samuel Fleisher Art Memorial School, Philadelphia-born artist Edward A. Butler began his formal art education at the age of eight. He went on to graduate from the Philadelphia College of Art before moving to New York City, where he has been painting ever since.

Mr. Butler is represented by Gallery Henoch, NYC. His work was first publicly viewed at the New York Academy of Arts "Take Home a Nude" show, where he was invited to exhibit for several consecutive years. His works have also been on display at Galerie Sono in Norwalk, CT, The Vault Gallery in Cambria, CA, Gallery 25N in New York, D&K Fine Arts Gallery in Maryland, and the National Arts Club in New York City. His work is held in many private collections including works commissioned by collectors.

Today, Mr. Butler and his wife live in a restored 140-year-old row house in Long Island City, NY where he maintains his studio. A classically trained pianist, he is also an experienced aerobatic pilot.
